MESSAGE FROM THE BRISBANE ROYAL

The Brisbane Royal 2018 “The EKKA”.

The Brisbane Royal was the best it has been for many years and I would like to encourage people to make the trip north for next year’s competition. The facilities are improving all the time and parking is now excellent with a 5 level car park inside the grounds and adjacent to the dog pavilion. Exhibitors with a vehicle and dog trailer are able to park all day in the designated canine pick up and drop off area which is also adjacent to the dog pavilion.

Since all the Terriers are judged on the same day, General Specials immediately follow the Breed Judging. The Scottish Terriers are usually judged on the Friday and on Sunday the Sporting Terrier Club of QLD holds its show at Durack with International Judges, so two big days of competition are available.

Something to think about.

At our recent Brunswick Valley Kennel Club 3-day conformation show, the first entrant in the Terrier Ring, an Airedale, was called 3 times and then declared absent. Judging of the Bull Terriers had commenced when the Airedale and his handler appeared. On learning that he had been declared absent, the young man became most upset and it was only then that another competitor realized that the young man was deaf and mute and new to showing dogs!

The situation was quickly rectified by the president of the BVKC and the Airedale was allowed to be shown at completion of Bull Terriers. For the remainder of the 3 day show one of our club members was more than willing to make sure he was in the right place at the right time.

Can you imagine how hard it must have been for him?

He couldn’t hear that the Terriers were about to be judged. He couldn’t ask anyone for help. He had to interpret what the judge wanted him to do. He had to be ready for judging of group. He had to find out if his class had been eliminated by Best in Group and Runner Up. Finally, he had to be ready for his class in group. All, without being able to hear or ask anyone.

At the end of the 3 days he wearing a HUGE SMILE.

BONNIE AT HER CAFE

Here is the photo of Bonnie at her favourite cafe at Waverton " Botanica Garden Cafe". The address is 61A Bay Road Waverton, opposite the train station. The food is great, the staff are friendly and love Bonnie!

Every weekend it's our routine to wake up, get dressed and walk to Botanica for breakfast. Bonnie knows and she is already waiting at the door ready to go. Bonnie knows the way and takes the lead when walking. We have our favourite place to sit, a lounge and Bonnie walks around their garden and loves to watch the fish in their fish pond while breakfast is being ordered. When the food come out Bonnie eats her boiled egg and relaxes until it's time to go. It's a very precious time for David and I and our Bonnie.

FROM THE SECRETARY

With the finalisation of the present judges training schemes and Terriers in particular our club members have been particularly busy bringing their dogs regularly on a Tuesday evening so that the aspirant judges are given the experience to go and judge our breed competently once they passed their final exams.

Over the last month our members have been to a number of these events and a special thanks must go to the following for their time: Jenny Myers, Emma Adlington, Susie Campbell, Kristy Farrugia and Michael Farrugia.

The Club has had a number of new members join recently and wish to welcome them and their Scotties into the fold and look forward to your involvement and participation in The Scottish Terrier Club Fun Days and other activities we have throughout the year.

- Anne Linley and Tag
- Francis Webb and Kate
- Rachel Goldsworthy with Bruce, Topsy and Lilly

From all our club members a big welcome to you all

HAVE YOUR SAY

When you volunteer to serve on a committee of a club, you are accepting the responsibility for helping to ensure the long-term survival, health and growth of the club. Successful clubs are led by people who are passionate about the club's mission; who want to share it with others; who want to help them expand their knowledge and enjoyment.

The passion shows through in everything the club does, from events to the newsletter and in every interaction with members and the community.

Never forget to keep it fun. People join clubs because they think it can add value to their lives. Members will continue to be members as long as the people running the club in a positive and uplifting way, as well as willing to share their knowledge and answer questions. Also willing to listen to ideas and open to others getting involved.

The STC committee, we are trying to innovate new ideas, never sitting still. I encourage the members of the STC to please contact me on how we can change things in the club and add new things we can try to grow our club and members. We always need volunteers, please come down to the fundays or shows and introduce yourself.

Kind regards
